

Your Pensions Letter

MUST HAVES From Your Pension Trustee

- Preparedness in managing risks associated with your funds (country risks, inflationary risks, organizational risks, default risks, currency risks, etc.)
- What returns you can expect to have, strategies to ensure that, and adequacy of the returns in the face of competition.
- Which in-house processes have been put in place by the Trustee to ensure the safety and sanctity of your records and easy access to reports and statements.

- How well equipped the trustee is in processing benefit payments in a hustle free manner.
- The relationship experience and quality of general advice the Trustee offers your organization and your employees on everything pensions
